

Questions for Caregiver Discussion

Print out and cut the questions into strips. Place the strips in a bowl or face down on the table for caregivers to take. Have caregivers volunteer to read their question and start the discussion.

How often should we read to our children?

Please demonstrate a question you could ask your child while you are reading to them.

Why is it important to occasionally stop reading and ask questions about what is happening in the book?

How can you use illustrations in a book to help a child understand what is happening or will happen in the book?

When is the best time for you to read to your child?

Why is it important to encourage using the terms “Please” and “Thank you?” How can we do this?

How do we model respect in our everyday lives?

What benefits do you think your child will receive by being respectful?
